

NEWS FROM ASHLAND'S 150TH CELEBRATION COMMITTEE

While we wait for the license plates to arrive, we have ordered 150th Celebration mugs ($10), pens ($2) and Christmas ornaments ($15) to sell along with the pictorial books ($29.95) at the Town Wide Yard Sale on September 16. Be sure to stop by our table in the Memorial Park! Free 150th Celebration pencils will be given to our customers, while supplies last.

We hope to have a 2018 calendar available by then. All the plans for the Civil War Ball, including the train ride, music group, dance instructor, are coming together as well as the Cemetery Walk narratives. Great responses have been received to our request for parade participants, the Bektash Shriners Mini-cars and Mini-choppers Units, NH Police Pipes & Drum, the Mattatuck Drum Band, the Muchachos, to name a few. Next project will be the utility pole banners and continued work on the long-term monument for the L. W. Packard Bell.

Copies of the pictorial book, containing vintage and recent pictures of our Town, for viewing and order forms are available at the Ashland Library, Dot's Bread & Butter Restaurant, Town Office and Elaine Hughes Real Estate. The book can be purchased anytime. The price is $29.95 plus shipping & handling ($6.65 expedited/$3.65 book rate) or avoid shipping & handling and purchase it at Elaine Hughes Realty Office, 116 Main Street. To order, mail check or money order payable to "Ashland 150th Celebration", to PO Box 15, Ashland NH 03217.
