

150th Anniversary Committee

Tuesday, August 22, 2017 6 pm

Ashland Railroad Station

The meeting was called to order at 6:05 pm by Jane Sawyer, Chairman. Present were J. Sawyer, B. Baker, K. Hughes, and J. Stewart. Absent, Caroline Gosse.

Jane ordered the license plates, the State advised the logo was a little dark, but Stacey Lucas fixed it so it is ok now.

Jane ordered mugs, pens, pencils, christmas ornaments and paper bags with logo. Consensus was to charge $15 a piece for the mug. Pens will be $2 each and the ornaments $10. Pencils will be free and will be put in each bag when they purchase something. The bags will be $2 without a purchase.

Motion was made by B. Baker to accept the minutes of July 25, 2017 and the emergency meeting minutes. Seconded by K. Hughes.

Motion carried.

Treasurer's report has been accepted for audit.

The 150th committee will have a booth at Memorial Park for town wide yard sale and will have a table somewhere for Christmas Night in Ashland.

Plans are to have a free Door Prize raffle and a fundraiser raffle.

Jane will order 30 more books.

It was suggested to do photos of the police dept. and the fire dept. for the historical booklet, as well as other town departments and boards, and other individuals of our town.
Need to find a photo with Clint and Ernie in it to include.

$650 for the band Hard Tacks (6 piece band)

for Civil War Ball. Jane ordered a Civil War era dance DVD for the band as well as Megan Francis who will offer dance lessons next year before the Ball.

Brenda from Hobo railroad got back to Jane. They will work on pricing etc.

KB will reserve Sparky the Dog for the parade and work on certificate for the sesquicentennial.

Once the banner design is completed by Stacey Lucas, Jane will look into the cost of the banners for the utility poles from JD Graphic Design and another company. In October we should sell sponsorships for the banners with a December 1 deadline. In June we will solicit the banners for the ballpark.

Rumney had the Granite State Cloggers Jane will check into this. KB will check about a Taekwondo Demonstration. Jeanette will ask Jim Gliech to do juggling for the parade and after the parade to do juggling down at the ballpark. KB will look into a Jujitsu demonstration.

Jane will talk with Ann Barney about sprinklers, bubble stations, etc.

We will have vendors down there. Maybe we could do Bean Hole Beans!!!!

We reviewed the next proposed press release.

There being no other business the meeting was adjourned at 7:10pm by Chairman Jane Sawyer.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeanette I. Stewart
