

Civil War Costume Ball, Dance Lessons, and Train Ride information:

The Dance Factory and Mill No. 3 in conjunction with the Committee is offering dance lessons at a greatly reduced price in preparation for the Civil War Ball. Classes will be 7 pm to 8 pm, at Mill No. 3, Winter Street, on July 9, July 13 and a "dress rehearsal" on July 16, all at the incredible price of $15 per person for 3 classes (payable at the time of the first class) or $10 for one class. No shoes/sneakers, only socks allowed on the dance floor. Please email ashlandnh150@yahoo.com or leave a message at 968.3509 if you plan to join us. Great time to learn some of the routines and have fun!

Tickets are now on sale for the Civil War Costume Ball ($50 adults/$25 children 12 & under) and the train ride to and from ($10 each) by reserving online at ashlandnh150@yahoo.com and mailing a check payable to "Ashland 150 Fund", PO Box 15, Ashland, NH 03217 or purchasing at Elaine Hughes Real Estate, 116 Main Street, Ashland. Your actual tickets will be available at the station from our "ticket agent" on the day of the ride/ball. Costumes are not required, but encouraged and there will be door prizes which only those in costume will be eligible to win. We will need to provide the final number for the Inn by July 12, so don't delay.

The 150 Celebration Committee will be at the ballpark on July 3 selling tickets and souvenirs.

For further information, including a listing of the events of July 20 to July 29 and the parade registration, rules and list of categories for awards please see other areas of this page.

Thank you for your continued support! 150th Celebration Committee.
